Parents on class WhatsApp group have previously mentioned a preference for light blue polo shirts as it's hard to keep a white shirt white!	We can add a light blue option.
Sounds good, very comprehensive. One point would be to reconsider white polos for the school shirt. Like most of the parents, we have found that white tops are consistently marked by pens and markers. Some of the marks are permanent so we have since bought light blue which is much more forgiving. If light blue isn't allowed then please review the pens! Permanent ink is not appropriate.	We can add a light blue option. Whiteboard pens are not permanent but can be troublesome. We will make sure that children have cloths or rubbers. Removal link. https://www.ehow.co.uk/how_6688140_remove-whiteboard-marker-clothes.html
to not insult child/parent with a phone call RE trousers are too shirt for a pupil without first communicating to said parent if the child likes certain clothing and doesnt want to conform any questions RE this topic please feel free to call (name and number redacted)
I think smart tracksuits, t-shirts shorts in the summer would make for much more comfortable clothing for children. Other schools have opted for this and I,Äôd be keen for my children to feel more relaxed/ comfortable during the day too
no
Do the jogging bottoms need to be royal blue or can they be black? Hard to find any in this colour.	Can extend joggers to black
I think it,Äôs very fair. There are so many schools that have frequent dress up days and overbearing rules. The flexibility that Abbey provides ensures that children feel comfortable, can express who they are and that parents do not feel pressured to keep up with changes,

Section 4.1 regarding head scarves. The term head scarves is mainly for girls and is not inclusive for boys of other religions. Perhaps you could use the term head covering or religious headgear instead which would be more inclusive.

13	2022/04/25	Very grateful Abbey does not expect branded uniform. This has helped keep costs down and matters a lot. Also you have done it way before you had to. Pat yourselves on the back. 🙌🙌🙌

25	2022/04/27	Request for the uniform to be clearly stated on website. When our daughter started I couldn't find anywhere that stated the uniform and had to look at the pictures of the children on the website to hazard a guess as to any sock/tights or shoe colour. etc
