Greeks invade!

Y3 Workshop.

COOKING

It was all smiles and delicious aromas at Abbey as Year 3 pupils turned their classroom into a mini taverna — and what a feast it was!

The youngsters, dressed head to toe in traditional Ancient Greek costumes, rolled up their sleeves to prepare and cook a mouthwatering selection of Greek dishes for their parents. From pitta bread and colourful Greek salads to tasty tzatziki, the children showed off their culinary flair and teamwork. But it wasn't just about the food.

The afternoon was a chance for the pupils to share everything they'd been learning in class about ancient and modern Greece. Proud parents watched and enjoyed being served the food and history that inspired their work. Teachers described the event as a “wonderful celebration of learning, singing Greek inspired songs and sharing wonderful art work.”

Kamen said, “My dad loved my art work.” El-Omega exclaimed “My mum said I should make Greek salad at home”

By the end of the day, there were happy faces, full tummies, and a real buzz of pride around the hall — a perfect recipe for success at Abbey!
