Donkey delight!

Abbey hits the beach

DOUBLE DAISY

Abbey's Year 2 pupils enjoyed a seaside adventure when they visited Weston-super-Mare for a day of sand, smiles and surprises.

The donkeys stole the show with their hilarious names. In a brilliant coincidence, Daisy climbed aboard a donkey called Daisy! However, one cheeky donkey caused quite a stir when it did a poo. The unexpected toilet stop had pupils laughing and gave them a seaside story to remember.

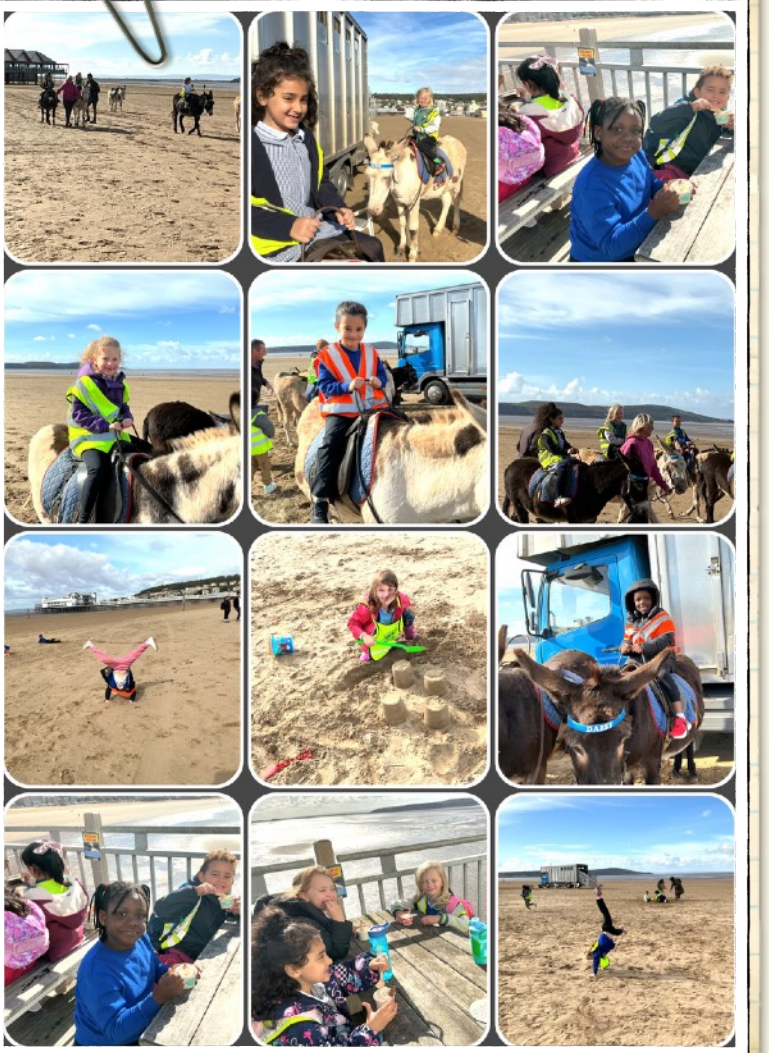

Meanwhile, the beach became a busy digging site as everyone tried to create enormous holes. Sand flew as the young diggers tackled their mighty mission, although some unfortunately got sand in their eyes.

Amazing ice-cream proved a delicious highlight and helped make the outing extra special.

The verdict was clear: pupils gave their adventure a cracking 10/10 Tripadvisor score.

With donkey drama, giant holes and tasty treats, Abbey's seaside explorers certainly had plenty to talk about afterwards!

Thanks to 2J for the story!
